

THE PASSIVE – PRESENT PERFECT 2

Change the following sentences to passive.

- 1 We have made much progress. _____
- 2 They have made Tom a supervisor. _____
- 3 We have lost that opportunity. _____
- 4 They have taken Tom back to jail. _____
- 5 They have done nothing yet. _____
- 6 Somebody has left the gate open. _____
- 7 They have told Tom to leave. _____
- 8 They have reported no injuries. _____
- 9 Somebody has bought the house. _____
- 10 They have asked Tom to resign. _____
- 11 They have taken Tom to police headquarters. _____
- 12 They have changed his schedule. _____
- 13 Somebody has opened the door. _____
- 14 They have offered Tom a job. _____
- 15 Somebody has killed Tom. _____
- 16 They have told Tom to go home. _____
- 17 They have sold the house. _____
- 18 They have made no arrests. _____
- 19 They have sent the file. _____
- 20 How much money have they spent on building the museum? _____
- 21 They have warned me against going there. _____
- 22 They have chosen Tom to do that. _____
- 23 Mary has replaced Tom. _____
- 24 They have developed rice farming to a high degree in Japan. _____
- 25 We have solved the problem. _____
- 26 They have reduced the price of these shoes. _____
- 27 The storm has completely destroyed his house. _____
- 28 A severe drought has hit the region. _____
- 29 They have discovered a new pyramid in Egypt. _____
- 30 We have achieved the goal. _____

KEY

- 1 We have made much progress. Much progress has been made.
- 2 They have made Tom a supervisor. Tom has been made a supervisor.
- 3 We have lost that opportunity. That opportunity has been lost.
- 4 They have taken Tom back to jail. Tom has been taken back to jail.
- 5 They have done nothing yet. Nothing has been done yet.
- 6 Somebody has left the gate open. The gate has been left open.
- 7 They have told Tom to leave. Tom has been told to leave.
- 8 They have reported no injuries. No injuries have been reported.
- 9 Somebody has bought the house. The house has been bought.
- 10 They have asked Tom to resign. Tom has been asked to resign.
- 11 They have taken Tom to police headquarters. Tom has been taken to police headquarters.
- 12 They have changed his schedule. His schedule has been changed.
- 13 Somebody has opened the door. The door has been opened.
- 14 They have offered Tom a job. Tom has been offered a job.
- 15 Somebody has killed Tom. Tom has been killed (by somebody).
- 16 They have told Tom to go home. Tom has been told to go home.
- 17 They have sold the house. The house has been sold.
- 18 They have made no arrests. No arrests have been made.
- 19 They have sent the file. The file has been sent.
- 20 How much money have they spent on building the museum? How much money has been spent on building the museum?
- 21 They have warned me against going there. I have been warned against going there.
- 22 They have chosen Tom to do that. Tom has been chosen to do that.
- 23 Mary has replaced Tom. Tom has been replaced by Mary.
- 24 They have developed rice farming to a high degree in Japan. Rice farming has been developed to a high degree in Japan.
- 25 We have solved the problem. The problem has been solved.
- 26 They have reduced the price of these shoes. The price of these shoes has been reduced.
- 27 The storm has completely destroyed his house. His house has been completely destroyed by the storm.
- 28 A severe drought has hit the region. The region has been hit by a severe drought.
- 29 They have discovered a new pyramid in Egypt. A new pyramid has been discovered in Egypt.
- 30 We have achieved the goal. The goal has been achieved.